

CURRICULUM VITAE
Kamilla Sigridur Josefsdottir cand.med. et chir., DTMH

Up to date as of 5/2022

Medical education and qualifications

Medical education

6/2008 Candidata medicinae et chirurgiae, University of Iceland Medical School

Medical licensing and credentialing information (current only)

7/2017 Certification in Paediatric Infectious Diseases in Iceland, issued by the Icelandic Directorate of Health

5/2016 Certification in Paediatrics in Iceland, issued by the Icelandic Directorate of Health

Diploma in Tropical Medicine and Hygiene

3/2010 DTMH examination, diploma issued by the Royal College of Physicians, London, UK

Post-graduate medical training and positions

3/2018-present Job Title:
Project Manager/Medical Officer for Vaccines and Vaccine Preventable Diseases
Related roles/responsibilities:
Member, committee for risk-assessment of food, feed, fertiliser and seed 7/2019->
National Focal Point for Tuberculosis 6/2020-present
Chairman, working group for COVID-19 vaccination policy 9/2021-present
Member, Advisory Forum for ECDC 5/2022->
Centre for Health Security and Communicable Disease Control
Directorate of Health, Iceland

12/2017-2/2018 Paediatrician
Leger Uten Grenser (MSF), Norway

3/2017-11/2017 Paediatrician/Paediatric Infectious Diseases Specialist
Centre for Health Security and Communicable Disease Control
Directorate of Health, Iceland

7/2016-5/2020 Paediatrician in various clinical contexts
Reykjavik, Iceland

7/2013-6/2016 Clinical Post-graduate Fellow, Pediatric Infectious Diseases
Baylor College of Medicine Pediatric Infectious Disease Fellowship Program
Texas Children's Hospital, Houston, Texas

6/2010-6/2013 Pediatric Resident
University of Connecticut (UCONN) Pediatric Residency Program
Connecticut Children's Medical Center, Hartford, Connecticut

Languages

Icelandic (native), English (proficient), French (basic), Danish (basic)