

Surveillance Process Manager

Unit: Public Health Functions

Reference: ECDC/FGIV/2023/PHF-SPM

Applications are invited for the above Contract Agent post at the European Centre for Disease Prevention and Control (ECDC).

Job description

ECDC plans to recruit one person for the above-mentioned vacancy. ECDC also aims to establish a reserve list, which may be used for any future vacancies in the area.

The jobholder will report to the Group Leader Surveillance Systems.

The jobholder will be responsible in particular for the following areas of work:

- Coordinate the ECDC surveillance process including the updating of surveillance protocols, list of variables and validation rules, calendar of data calls, and routine surveillance output production;
- Coordinate the process of receiving, logging, assessing, triaging, processing, and responding to infectious disease surveillance data requests from external organisations;
- Review and update procedures related to data access together with relevant stakeholders;
- Maintain and update the forms and supporting documentation for data access requests;
- Ensure timely, accurate and high-quality communication with and support to all internal and external parties implicated in data access requests;
- Train internal stakeholders on third-party data access procedures;
- Define and implement robust logging of data access requests, and produce reports of basic statistics regularly and upon request;
- Support the introduction and improvement of tools in support of data access activities, such as electronic workflows;

- Develop and maintain procedures that standardise other recurring surveillance processes, as required;
- Any other tasks related to his/her area of work, as requested.

Qualifications and experiences required

A. Formal requirements

In order to be an eligible candidate you need to fulfil a set of formal requirements. These requirements are:

Personal characteristics/interpersonal skills:

- High level of service orientation;
- Ability to handle multiple requests concurrently, demonstrating excellent task management and prioritisation;

1 Only diplomas and certificates that have been awarded in EU member states or that are the subject of equivalence certificates issued by authorities in the said Member states shall be taken into consideration.

2 Candidates with a non-official EU language or English as their mother tongue must provide proof of their level of a second language with a certificate (B1 or more).

3 Prior to the appointment, the successful candidate will be asked to provide a certificate from the police file to the effect of non-existing criminal record.

- Problem-solver, well-organised and detail-oriented;
- Excellent communication skills, both oral and written, for frequent interactions with external requesters and international partners;
- Strong inter-personal skills and ability to work well in a multi-disciplinary team;
- Ability to adapt and learn on the job.

Depending on the number of applications received, the selection committee may apply stricter requirements within the aforementioned selection criteria.

Equal Opportunities

ECDC is an equal opportunities employer and encourages applications from all candidates who fulfil the eligibility and selection criteria without any distinction on grounds of age, race, political, philosophical or religious conviction, gender or sexual orientation and regardless of disabilities.

Appointment and conditions of employment

The jobholder will be appointed on the basis of a shortlist proposed by the Selection Committee to the Director. This vacancy notice is the basis for the establishment of the Selection Committee's proposal. Candidates will be requested to undergo written tests. Candidates should note that the proposal may be made public and that inclusion in the shortlist does not guarantee recruitment. The shortlist of candidates will be established following an open selection process.

The successful candidate will be recruited as a contract agent, pursuant to article 3a) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union, for a period of five years. The contract may be renewed. The appointment will be in Function Group IV.

Applicants should note the requirement under the EU staff regulations for all new staff to successfully complete a probationary period of nine months.

For any further information on contractual and working conditions, please refer to the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Communities, which are available at the following link:
