

Frequently asked Questions

Q. I have applied last year but was unsuccessful, can I apply again this year?

Yes, we would welcome your candidature again.

Q. Can I get feedback on my application?

Due to the volume of applications we receive and our limited resources ECDC is only able to contact those candidates who are invited to an interview.

Q. I am not a national of an EU Member State, Norway, Iceland or Liechtenstein, but I have a residence permit in one of these countries, can I apply?

To be considered eligible you must be a national or citizen of one of the above mentioned countries. Holding a residence permit is not sufficient enough.

Q. Can medical students apply for a traineeship?

I'm afraid not. To be considered eligible you must have completed your studies and been awarded a full University degree.

Q. What can I do if my application has been rejected?

Please note that the decision of ECDC to reject an application is final and binding and there is no appeal procedure. If an application is unsuccessful, a candidate may re-apply for a subsequent training period.

Q. Does ECDC provide any assistant in finding accommodation in Stockholm?

No, we are unable to provide assistance and Trainees are responsible for finding their own accommodation. We can however provide you with practical advice when looking for accommodation (where to look, etc.)

Q. Does ECDC provide health insurance?

We provide all Trainees with accident insurance however Trainees must take out valid health insurance valid in Sweden, prior to the start of their traineeship. Proof of this insurance will be requested prior to starting.
