

CURRICULUM VITAE
Anne-Catherine Viso

SANTE PUBLIQUE FRANCE, the French agency of public health

Director, Scientific and International Department

Since June 2019

Deputy to the Director, Scientific and International Mission

May 2016 - June 2019

InVS, French Institute for public health surveillance

Deputy to the Director, Scientific and Quality Department

2009 -2016

Adviser for European Development, Directorate General Office

2006-2009

Afse, French agency for Environmental Health Safety

Head, Department «International collaboration and tools for risk assessment »

2003-2006

VEOLIA ENVIRONNEMENT - Division of Environmental affairs

Advisor – Water Policy

2001-2003

VIVENDI WATER - Division Prospective and Development

Advisor for "Research and Regulation"/ European Level

2000-2002

VIVENDI - GENERALE DES EAUX - Research Department/ International Technical Department – Advisor
« research, regulation, international cooperation»

1998 – 2000

GENERALE DES EAUX

Advisor for European Affairs to the Director for Research « Water and Sanitation »

1996 -1998

ANJOU RECHERCHE (Générale des Eaux Research Center)

Adviser to the Director General, European Projects

1994 -1996

Plymouth Marine Laboratory, UK

Post-doctoral fellow, funded by the European Commission Research Program.

1990-1993

INSERM U303, Institute of Medical Research, Unit 303, Villefranche-sur-Mer

1986-1990

PhD in fundamental and applied Toxicology